

George J. Geiger (- 21 Jul 1941)

Geiger, Dr. George J. On Monday, July 21, 1941, at Georgetown Hospital, Dr. George J. Geiger of 3736 Cumberland st. n.w., husband of Cora A. Geiger, father of George Joseph Geiger, Miss Cora A. Geiger, Elizabeth McCoy Geiger and Mrs. Gerald C. Gearty, and brother of Miss Helen M. Geiger. Funeral services at the above residence on Wednesday, July 23, at 8:30 a.m. thence to the Blessed Sacrament Church, Chevy Chase Circle and Western avenue, where mass will be offered at 9 a.m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, July 22, 1941, p. A12

Dr. George Geiger Dies, Pharmacist 40 Years

Dr. George J. Geiger, a pharmacist here for more than 40 years, died yesterday at Georgetown Hospital. Services will be held at his late home, 3736 Cumberland street N.W., at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow, followed by requiem mass at the Blessed Sacrament Church at 9 a.m.

Dr. Geiger, who was born in Washington, was graduated from the old National School of Pharmacy when he was 19 years old. He had to wait until he was 21 to practice independently because of age requirements. He was first in business in Georgetown and then for 41 years had a store at Sixth and B streets N.E. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Cora A. Geiger; a son, George J. Geiger; three daughters, Cora A. and Elizabeth McCoy Geiger and Mrs. Gerald C. Geiger, and a sister, Miss Helen M. Geiger.

He will be buried in Congressional Cemetery.

The Washington Post, July 22, 1941, p. 21

Dr. G.J. Geiger, Former Druggist, Dies in Hospital

Dr. George J. Geiger, 67, of 3736 Cumberland Street Northwest, died after a brief illness at the Georgetown Hospital yesterday morning.

Dr. Geiger, who was a native Washingtonian, had been in business as a druggist for over 41 years at Sixth and B Streets Northeast. Two years ago he retired and devoted his time mostly to gardening.

He was graduated from the National College of Pharmacy, which has since become a part of the George Washington University, at the age of 19. It was necessary that he wait until he became 21 to work as a pharmacist.

Dr. Geiger leaves his wife, Cora A. Geiger, one son, George J. Geiger, and three daughters, Cora A. Geiger, Elizabeth M. Geiger, all of 3736 Cumberland Street Northwest, and Mrs. Gerald Gearty, of 3511 Davenport Street Northwest, one sister, Miss Helen Geiger, of Tampa, Fla.

Requiem mass will be said tomorrow at 9 p.m. in the Shrine of the Most Blessed Sacrament, 3728 Quesada Street Northwest, followed by burial in Congressional Cemetery.