

Dorothy S. Gerhold

(- 25 May 1990)

Gerhold, Dorothy S. On May 25, 1990, Dorothy S. Gerhold beloved mother of Gary M. Gerhold, Sharon L. Powers and Robert C. Gerhold sister of Mabel Spiller cousin of Thelma Green also survived by five grandchildren. Friends may call at the Lee Funeral Home of Clinton, Branch Avenue and Coventry Way, Clinton, MD, Monday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m., where service will be held at 1 p.m., Tuesday, May 29. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Washington Post, May 27, 1990, p. D8

Dorothy S. Gerhold

Clerk

Dorothy S. Gerhold, 74, a former clerk at the Charles G. Stott & co. in Bladensburg and a member of St. Jerome's Catholic Church in Hyattsville, died of leukemia May 25 at the Golden Oaks nursing home in Laurel.

Mrs. Gerhold, who had lived in Bladensburg before moving to Golden Oaks in February, was born in Washington. She graduated from Eastern High School.

She worked for Charles G. Stott & Co., an office supply business, from the mid-1970s until 1986.

Her husband, Martin C. Gerhold, died in 1954.

Survivors include three children, Gary M. Gerhold of Ritchie, Md., Sharon L. Powers of Upper Marlboro and Robert C. Gerhold of Daytona Beach, Fla. a sister, Mabel Spiller of Annandale and five grandchildren.