Mrs. Giddings' Funeral Held

The funeral of Mrs. Adelia Giddings, 86, widow of Alfred W. Giddings, who died at the home of her niece, Miss Pearl M. Burdine, 136 Leland street, Chevy Chase, of a heart attack, took place yesterday in the funeral home of W. Reuben Pumphrey, Bethesda. The services were conducted by the Rev. John Albertson, pastor of the Bethesda Presbyterian Church, and burial was in Congressional Cemetery, Washington.

Mrs. Giddings was a native of Washington. Before coming to Chevy Chase three years ago, she lived at Colonial Beach, Va., about 20 years. She is survived by two nieces, Mrs. Michael J. Downey, Chevy Chase, Md., and Miss Burdine, and a nephew, Lyman E. Burdine, Washington.
