Struck By Motor Cycle, Boy, 9 Dies In Hospital

Arrested Driver Says Lad Ran Directly in Front of Machine

Frederick Glick, nine years old, 621 Raleigh street, Congress Heights, who was injured by the motor cycle of Albert Van Sise, 3501 Nichols avenue, Saturday afternoon, died at Casualty Hospital early this morning.

Van Sise told the police that several boys were playing about a puddle of water and Glick, one of the number, ran directly in front of his motorcycle, appearing there so suddenly that it was impossible for him to prevent the accident.

Police of the eleventh precinct detained Van Sise at the station this morning to insure his attendance at the inquest over the boy's body at the morgue this afternoon.
