

H.C. Graff

(- 2 Oct 1880)

The Evening Star, October 4, 1880

Mr. H.C. Graff, for several years past connected with the business department of the Critic, died at his residence, 824 12th street, on Saturday, in the 31st year of his age, of typhoid fever. Mr. Graff was a nephew of the late J.C. Miller, the business manager of the Critic, and since Mr. Miller's death has filled his place. He was a young man of sterling worth. The funeral took place today, and the services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Elliott, of the Church of the Ascension, and the interment was at the Congressional Cemetery. The pall-bearers were A.J. Clarke, W.F. Simonds, Fred. Griffin, Francis Benzler, Mr. Pushaw and Mr. Pennebaker.