

Cecilia A. Graham ( - 28 Apr 1921)

---

The Evening Star, April 28, 1921, p. 7

Miss Cecilia Graham, Charity Worker, Dies Lifelong Washington Resident Succumbs at Age of 78. Ill a Month

Miss Cecilia Graham, lifelong resident of this city, and identified in personal charity work for a great many years, died early today, following a month's illness. She was seventy-eight years old and resided at the Riggs apartments.

Miss Graham, the daughter of Curtis Burr Graham and Hannah More, was born in this city. She was a sister of the late Andrew B. Graham, who conducted a lithograph establishment just south of Pennsylvania avenue on 11th street for many years.

She was a life member of Foundry M.E. Church.