

Robert H. Graham

(- 15 Jun 1885)

The Evening Star, August 20, 1875

Locals

Mr. Robert H. Graham, a popular resident of this city, and the well-known watchmaker, has been brought home from the Springs, and his physicians say there is but little hope of his recovery.

The Evening Star, June 19, 1885

Funeral of the Late Robert H. Graham

The funeral of Robert H. Graham, which took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 511 6th street, was largely attended. The remains were interred in Congressional Cemetery. Rev. Drs. McKinney, Sunderland and Meador conducted the services. The pallbearers were: Messrs. E.G. Davis, W.G. Brock, C.C. Duncanson, Geo. W. Ballock, W.J. Stephenson, A.T. Whiting, John H. Bird and P.M. Dubant, representing the Knights Templar, Scottish Rite, Chapter and Lodge F.A.A.M. The burial services begun at the house were concluded at Congressional Cemetery. The funeral cortege was one of the largest that has been seen in this city for years.