W.W. Greenwell Dies, Prominent Musician

W.W. Greenwell, 72, of 1619 R street N.W., for many years a well-known musician of this city, died Thursday after a long illness.

Mr. Greenwell, a native of this city, in past years frequently played piano accompaniments. He also had played several other musical instruments and at one time was a member of the band of the Tall Cedars of Lebanon.

In recent years he had worked as a clerk for the Coast Guard until his retirement about a year ago. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lillian Greenwell.

Funeral services were held today at Hanlon's funeral parlor, 641 H street N.E. Burial was in Congressional Cemetery.
