Man, 61, Hit By Auto, Dies From His Hurts

William Gulick, 61 years old, of 12 Rhode Island avenue, died at the Homeopathic Hospital early today from injuries suffered Saturday night when he was run down in the 1700 block of North Capitol street by a machine operated by Francis J. McQuillan, 20 years old, of 314 B street southeast.

McQuillan and Robert W. Trappen of 323 A street southeast, an eye-witness to the mishap, appeared at an inquest scheduled by Coroner J. Ramsey Nevitt for the District Morgue at noon today.

According to police, Gulick was walking from the west to the east side of North Capitol street when McQuillan's car, proceeding southward, struck him. The injured man was taken to Sibley Hospital and treated for lacerations of the head.

He went home when his condition was said to be not serious, police reported, but was taken to the Homeopathic Hospital by relatives shortly afterward. He died there at 6:10 a.m.

A coroner's jury gave a verdict of accidental death.
