

Elizabeth Hall

(- 20 Noov 1881)

Hall. Suddenly, at 1:30 a.m., Sunday, November 20th, 1881, of apoplexy, Elizabeth Hall, wife of the late James S. Hall, in the 70th year of her age.

"God shall wipe away all tears"

The beautiful sleeps; oh, softly draw near
The couch, where our mother doth rest;
Bring spring's early buds to deck her fair brow
And lay on her purified breast.

In life's early morn her spirit hath flown;
Ere a tear had bedimmed those soft eyes,
Or sorrow had clouded hope's brightest beam,
She hath passed in her bloom to the skies.

With lamp ready trimmed that summons she heard,
What cometh full soon to us all;
"Come ye blest of my Father, inherit the peace
Prepared for the faithful who call.

Sorrowing friends, mourn not her swift flight,
Like a bird she hath folded her wings,
And now in those sanctified mansions of peace
With seraphs and angels she sings.

Then patiently wait that blissful assurance
To meet her again in pure realms above,
Where afflictions and sorrow forever are banished,
And tears are all wiped by redeeming love.
