

Hattie B. Hall

(17 May 1865 – 7 May 1962)

Hall, Hattie B. On Monday, May 7, 1962, Hattie B. Hall of 1407 Kennedy st. nw., wife of the late Edward M. Hall, mother of Mrs. Grace H. Barber and Mrs. Elizabeth H. Odell, both of Washington, D.C., and a sister Mrs. Lillie M. Archibald of Springfield, Md. Also survived by 3 granddaughters, Mrs. Sara Jane Elliott of Arlington, Va.; Mrs. Margaret B. Spire and Miss Jeanne H. Barber, both of Washington, D.C., and 5 great-grandchildren. Friends may call at the S.H. Hines Co. Funeral Home, 2901 14th st. nw., on Tuesday from 2-5 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. (Parking facilities). Services from the above funeral home on Wednesday, May 9, at 3 p.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery. The family suggests that expressions of sympathy may be made in the form of a contribution to the Methodist Home of District of Columbia, 4901 Connecticut ave. nw.

The Evening Star, May 8, 1962, p. ?

Mrs. Hattie Hall, Ex-Treasurer of Methodist Home

Mrs. Hattie B. Hall, a native of the District, died Monday at a nursing home in Wheaton, Md. She would have been 97 on May 17.

A member of Cavalry Methodist Church for more than 50 years. Mrs. Hall served for 25 years as treasurer of the Board of Managers of the Methodist Home for the Aged in the District and was active in church women's organization.

Her husband, Edward, for more than 60 years an engraver with the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, died in 1939. They were married July 16, 1886.

Mrs. Hall leaves two daughters, Mrs. Grace H. Barber and Mrs. Elizabeth H. Odell, both of 1407 Kennedy street N.W.; and three granddaughters, Mrs. Sara Jane Elliott of Arlington, Mrs. Margaret Spire and Miss Jeanne Barber, both of Washington.

She also leaves a sister, Mrs. Lillie M. Archibald of Washington, and five great-grandchildren.