

William W. Hall

(14 Dec 1814 - 20 Mar 1913)

Hall. On Thursday, March 20, 1913 at Ruppert Home, Anacostia, D.C., William W. Hall, beloved husband of Elizabeth Hall in the 99th year of his age. Funeral from Thomas R. Nalley & Sons funeral parlor Saturday, March 22 at 2:30 p.m. Friends and relatives respectfully invited to attend. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, March 21, 1913, p. 2

William W. Hall Dead

Passing of Former Real Estate Dealer at Age of Ninety-Nine

William W. Hall, ninety-nine years old, for many years engaged in the real estate business in this city, died yesterday at the Ruppert Home in Anacostia. Funeral services are to be held at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Nalley's chapel. Burial will be in Congressional cemetery.

Mr. Hall is said to have been born in Maryland. He had lived in the District for more than sixty years. For the past year he and his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Hall, had lived at the Ruppert Home. Mrs. Hall is seventy-six years old, and is still quite active. Several grandchildren of Mr. Hall are said to live in Washington.

The Evening Star, March 22, 1913, p. 12

William W. Hall Buried

Funeral of Old Washington Resident Conducted This Afternoon

Funeral services for William W. Hall, one of the oldest residents of Washington, were held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at Nalley's chapel, 1231 11th street southeast. Interment was in Congressional cemetery.

The Association of Oldest Inhabitants of the District, of which Mr. Hall was a member, was represented at the funeral by four pallbearers, Washington Topham, William H. Palmer, William E. Reiss and Benjamin W. Reiss.

Mr. Hall was born in Prince Georges county, Md., December 14, 1814, and for the past half century had been a resident of Washington. For the past year he had lived with his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Hall, at the Ruppert Home in Anacostia.