

William Payson Hallett

(27 Jan 1831 – 12 Apr 1869)

Hallett. On the evening of the 12th inst., after a short and painful illness of pneumonia, William Payson Hallett in the 39th year of his age. Notice of the funeral in tomorrow's Chronicle.

The Evening Star, April 15, 1869

Tribute of Respect

A meeting of the clerks of the Solicitor's Office of the Treasury was held yesterday (Col. B.F. Pleasants in the chair) to express their esteem of their late fellow-clerk, Major William P. Hallett, who died on the 12th instant, and appropriate resolutions were adopted. Deceased was well known as a gentleman of ability and great kindness of heart, and served with distinction during the late war as an officer in the 13th New York cavalry, receiving while in the service a stroke of paralysis, from which he never recovered.