

Eric Hall Hanor

(- 24 Dec 1906)

Hanor. Suddenly on Monday, December 24, 1906 at Lafayette, Ind., Eric H. Hanor, formerly of this city, beloved husband of Ella Hanor (nee Bailey). Remains at Lee's undertaking parlors, 332 Pennsylvania avenue northwest. Notice of funeral in Post Friday morning.

The Evening Star, December 28, 1906, p. 15

Funeral of Charles Hanor

Funeral services over the remains of Charles Hanor, who died several days ago at his home in Lafayette, Ind., took place at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon at the undertaking establishment of J. William Lee, 332 Pennsylvania avenue. The officers of King Solomon's Lodge, No. 31, of the Masonic Order, were in charge of the services. Rev. Frank M. Bristol, pastor of the Metropolitan M.E. Church, preached the sermon. The interment was in Congressional cemetery. The deceased formerly resided in this city, having been employed at one of the local hotels.