Miss Harris, 79, Formerly of D.C.

Miss Margaret Helen Harris, 79, died Tuesday in Miami, Fla., after a long illness. A native of Washington, she had lived in Florida for the last decade.

Miss Harris was the last survivor of a Washington family well known in musical circles. Her late brothers, Arthur Percy Harris and William Henry Harris, wrote light operas which were performed extensively here. Miss Harris sometimes took parts in these productions.

She was educated in Washington and attended Grace Episcopal Church in Takoma Park.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Congressional Cemetery, where she will be buried.
