

James C. Hatcher

( - 1 Aug 1917)

---

Hatcher. Suddenly on Wednesday, August 1, 1917 at the residence of his sister, Mrs. D.S. McMahon, 1213 G street northeast, James C., beloved husband of Lillian Hatcher. Funeral from his sister's residence on Friday, August 3 at 3 p.m. Relatives and friends invited to attend. Interment at Congressional cemetery (Lynchburg, Va. Papers please copy).

The Evening Star, August 1, 1917, p. 16

Brakeman Loses Both Feet

James C. Hatcher, forty years old, 318 K street northeast, a freight brakeman, fell from a box car near 2d and K streets northeast about noon today. The wheels of the car passed over him, cutting off both feet. He was taken to Providence Hospital.

The Evening Star, August 2, 1917, p. 20

James Hatcher, forty years old, a railroad brakeman, who yesterday afternoon fell from a freight train near 2d and I streets northeast and had both feet cut off, died at Providence Hospital late in the afternoon. Coroner Nevitt arranged to hold an inquest at the morgue this afternoon to have a jury pass upon the circumstances attending the accident.