

Hancock H. Haynie

(- 25 Jan 1879)

The Evening Star, January 27, 1879

Death of Capt. Haney.

Capt. H. Haney, a well known pilot on the Potomac, who was, for about 20 years previous to the war, on the mail line to Aquia Creek, died at his residence in this city, Saturday night, after a long illness. Capt. Haney spent his entire life in public or private service on the river. During the war he was appointed a master in the navy and was one of the pilots on the Potomac flotilla. He remained for several years after the war in charge of the fire tug at the Navy Yard. Recently he has been on the steamer Keyport. Capt. Haney was a man of sterling integrity, and was a general favorite with all with whom he came in contact.