

Elizabeth Lambert Hebb

(- 1 Jun 1958)

Hebb. Elizabeth Lambert. On Sunday, June 1, 1958, Elizabeth Lambert Hebb, daughter of the late Col. Clement Dorsey Hebb, U.S.M.C. Services will be held at Gawler's Chapel, 1956 Pennsylvania ave. n.w. on Tuesday, June 3, at 2:30 p.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, June 2, 1958, p. A12

Miss E.L. Hebb, VA Employee and War Veteran

Miss Elizabeth Lambert Hebb, 83, a retired employe of the Veterans Administration and the daughter of a former Commandant of the Marine Corps, died yesterday in a private nursing home after a long illness.

Miss Hebb, who had lived in Washington since World War I, made her home at 2016 P street N.W. for many years.

Born in Boston, she was the daughter of the late Col. Clement Dorsey Hebb who was an early Commandant of the Marine Corps.

During the World War I, she served as a Yeomanette. She joined the Veterans Administration in 1919 and was employed there until her retirement in 1942.

Miss Hebb composed songs and, for many years, presented piano recitals in Barker Hall of the YWCA here.

She is survived by five cousins, including Mrs. E. Pearle Bayly, of 3315 Wisconsin avenue N.W.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in Gawler's Chapel, 1756 Pennsylvania avenue N.W. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, June 2, 1958, p. B2

Elizabeth L. Hebb

Elizabeth Lambert Hebb, 83, who worked for the Veterans Administration for 23 years until her retirement in 1942, died yesterday in a private nursing home.

Born in Boston, she was the daughter of Clement Dorsey Hebb, former Marine Corps Commandant, Miss Hebb served as a Yeomanette in World War I, joining the VA in 1919. She also composed a number of songs and piano compositions presented in recitals in Barker Hall of the YWCA here.

Miss Hebb is survived by five cousins, including Mrs. E. Pearle Bayly of Washington.

Funeral services will be at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at Gawlers funeral home, 1756 Pennsylvania ave. n.w., with burial in Congressional Cemetery.

The Washington Post, June 2, 1958, p. B2

Elizabeth Lambert Hebb, 83, who worked for the Veterans Administration for 23 years until her retirement in 1942, died yesterday in a private nursing home.

Born in Boston, she was the daughter of Clement Dorsey Hebb, former Marine Corps Commandant. Miss Hebb served as a Yeomanette in World War I, joining the VA in 1919. She also composed a number of songs and piano compositions presented in recitals in Barker Hall of the YWCA here.

Miss Hebb is survived by five cousins, including Mrs. E. Pearle Bayly of Washington.

Funeral services will be at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at Gawlers funeral home, 1756 Pennsylvania ave. nw., with burial in Congressional Cemetery.