

James Harrington Hilton

(Dec 1833 – 9 Mar 1919)

Hilton. On Sunday, March 9, 1919, at his residence, 4418 14th street northwest, James Harrington Hilton, in his eighty-fifth year. Funeral services at St. Joseph's Church, 2d and C streets northeast, on Tuesday, March 11, at 9:30 a.m. Friends and relatives invited to attend. Interment private.

The Evening Star, March 11, 1919, p. 16

James H. Hilton Dead

Clerk in Office of Adjutant General, Served Forty-Seven Years

James Harrington Hilton, eight-five years old, for forty-seven years a clerk in the adjutant general's office, died Sunday at the home of his son, Dr. J. Franklin Hilton, 4418 14th street northwest.

Funeral services were held at St. Joseph's Church, 2d and C streets northeast, this morning at 9:30 o'clock. Interment is to be private.

The Evening Star, March 13, 1919, p. 2

James H. Hilton Will Filed

Relatives, a Servant and Charitable Causes Are Remembered

The will of James H. Hilton, dated September 7, 1900, and modified by codicils of October 7, 912 and October 3, 1917, has been filed for probate. J. Franklin Hilton, a son, is given his personal effects at 4418 14th street northwest and cash and bonds in bank or trust companies. Samuel L. Hilton, another son, is to have the income from $5,000 for life; a niece, Sarah C. Hilton, the income from $4,000, and a stepdaughter, Mrs. John H. Burch, the interest on $3,000 for life. Mary Thomas, a servant is given $360. A life interest in the remaining estate is given to the son, Franklin, and a daughter, Catharine S. Hilton.

Should all the beneficiaries die without issue the income from the estate is to be applied to the relief of indigent and destitute white widows more than fifty-eight years of age for fifteen years. The fund is then to be divided between the Little Sisters of the Poor and the Home for Incurables. Robert L. O'Brien and J. Franklin Hilton are named as executors.