

Anna Pauline Holdridge

( - 4 May 1969)

---

Holdridge, Anna Pauline. On Sunday, May 4, 1969, Anna Pauline Holdridge of Brookeville, Md., sister of Mrs. Alexander Casanges of Brookeville, Md. Friends may call at the Francis H. Barber Funeral Home, Laytonsville, Md., on Tuesday, May 6, from 7 to 9 p.m. Funeral services will be held at St. Johns Episcopal Church, Olney, Md. On Wednesday, May 7, at 11 a.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery, Washington, D.C. Those desiring may contribute to St. John's Parish School, Olney, Md.

The Evening Star, May 6, 1969, p. B7

Miss Holdridge, Former Librarian At Civil Service

Anna Pauline Holdridge, 74, a former librarian at the Civil Service Commission, died of pneumonia Sunday at the Randolph Hills Nursing Home in Wheaton. She lived in Brookeville, Md.

She was born in Washington and was a graduate of George Washington University. During the 30 years she was a librarian, Miss Holdridge worked at the Library of Congress and later at the Civil Service Commission. She retired in 1950.

Miss Holdridge was a life member of the Women's Civic Club and also was a member of Naomi Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star and the Montgomery County Historical Society.

She leaves a sister, Mrs. Alexander Casanges, also of Brookeville.

Services will be at 11 a.m. tomorrow at St. John's Episcopal Church, 3427 Olney-Laytonsville Road Olney, with burial in Congressional Cemetery.

It is requested that expressions of sympathy be in the form of contributions to the St. John's Episcopal Church Parish School.