

Martha M. Holland

( - 27 Apr 1907)

---

Holland. On Saturday, April 27, 1907, at Columbia Hospital, Martha M., beloved wife of George N. Holland and mother of Calvin A. Holland. Funeral from her late residence, 1500 H street northeast, Tuesday, April 30, at 10 o'clock a.m. Relatives and friends invited.

The Evening Star, April 30, 1907, p. 16

Funeral of Mrs. Martha Holland

The funeral of Mrs. Martha Holland, wife of G.N. Holland, took place at 10 o'clock today from the family home, 1500 H street northeast. Mrs. Holland's death occurred Saturday at Columbia Hospital after a brief illness, and it came as a great shock to a large circle of friends, many of whom had seen her only a few days ago, and then in her usual good health.

Mrs. Holland was born in Gettysburg, Pa., and had many thrilling experiences in connection with the great battle of the civil which was fought at that place. Her father's farm and dwelling were within the battle lines, and many of the wounded soldiers of both armies were sheltered by the family. Soon after the close of the war the family came to Washington, and she became the wife of George N. Holland. The couple lived in this city during all their married life. Her husband and an only son, Calvin A. Holland, and two grandchildren, Miss Maud and Master Calvin Holland, survive her.