

Catherine C. Howard

(13 May 1845 –9 Jan 1927)

Howard. Sunday night, January 9, 1927, at her residence, 1311 Thirtieth st. n.w., Catherine Combs, widow of George T. Howard and mother of Robert C., John C., George T., Frances McC. Howard and Mrs. John C. Ashburn. Requiem mass at Holy Trinity Church, Georgetown, Wednesday, January 12 at 10 a.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, January 11, 1927, p. 7

Rites For Mrs. Howard

Funeral of Lifelong Resident to Be Held Tomorrow

Funeral services for Mrs. Catherine Combs Howard, who died Sunday evening, will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at Holy Trinity Church, Georgetown.

Mrs. Howard, a lifelong resident of Washington, was born here May 13, 1845. She was the widow of George T. Howard, and for several years has made her home with her daughter, Miss Frances McC. Howard, at 1311 Thirtieth street. Besides Miss Howard, she is survived by three sons, Robert C., John C., George T., and a daughter, Mrs. John C. Ashburn of Los Angeles. Seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren also survive her.