

Horace R. Howlett

(- 14 Nov 1874)

The Evening Star, November 16, 1874

Locals

Captain H.R. Howlett, a member of the 36th New York volunteers during the late war, died on Saturday last in this city, and his funeral took place this morning. Deceased had a brilliant record as an officer, and after partial recovery from severe wounds received at Malvern Hill, came to this city, where he was proprietor of the Woodbine House, corner of 4 1/2 and C streets.