

Richard A. Hunt

(22 Feb 1842 – 18 Sep 1899)

---

Hunt. Departed this life on Monday, September 18, 1899, at 12:20 o'clock p.m., Richard A. Hunt, aged 57 years 7 months and 18 days.

Our brother has from us fled
And gone beyond our sight,
And yet we know he is not dead,
But dwells in glorious light.

He was, when here below,
A man of pain and grief,
But from that pain and awful woe
At last he's found relief.

We shall not for him weep,
But sooner kiss the rod
That thus has put our brother to sleep
And taken him home to God.

By His Sister Susan A. Daniels

Papa, you have at last found rest,
After suffering untold pain,
But God has called you with His blest,
Never to suffer again.

By Mazie

Farewell, dear father, a long farewell;
For us you labored many years;
You always strove to do your best,
But now you've gone to take your rest.

By Susie

Years and years may pass,
No more we'll see thy face,
But loving hearts and willing hands
Will keep green thy resting place.

By His Wife, Sarah Hunt

Funeral from the residence of his sister, 323 13 1/2 street southwest, Wednesday, September 21, at 8:30 o'clock a.m., thence to St. Peter's Church, corner 2d and C streets southeast. Interment at Congressional cemetery.
