

Robert Hutchinson

( - 11 Oct 1900)

---

The Evening Star, October 12, 1900, p. 16

Robert Hutchinson's Sudden Death

Robert Hutchinson, 72 years old, died suddenly last night at his home, No. 1222 Half street southeast, of heart disease. As there was no physician in attendance, Acting Coroner Glazebrook gave the necessary death certificate this morning.

For a number of years the deceased kept a furniture store in Southeast Washington. He retired from business about a year ago and has since lived at the home of his granddaughter.