

Thomas Hutchinson

(- 14 Nov 1913)

The Evening Star, November 15, 1913, p. 13

Thomas Hutchinson Dead

Thomas Hutchinson, sixty years old, died suddenly last night in his room at 940 E street northwest. His death was due to an attack of acute indigestion. Hutchinson, who was a native of Scotland, was employed as shoemaker in a shop on 10th street. His body was taken to the morgue.