Mrs. James, 90, Long a Resident of Hyattsville

Mrs. Lillie H. James, 90, a longtime resident of Hyattsville, died of cancer yesterday at her home, 4000 Massachusetts Avenue NW. She had previously lived more than 50 years at 5219 42nd Ave., Hyattsville, before moving in 1960.

MRS. LILLIE H. JAMES

Her husband, G. Shearman James, was a former teller with the National Bank of Washington and the Citizens Bank of Riverdale and later worked for the Internal Revenue Service in Maryland. He died in 1957.

A District native, Mrs. James, the former Lillie Howard, was graduated from the Sidwell Friends School in 1897.

She was a member of the old Pinkney Memorial Episcopal Church in Hyattsville. She later joined the All Souls Episcopal Church in the District.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Addie J. Howard of the home and Mrs. Frances B. Talbott Jr. of Bristol, Md., two sons, G. Shearman James Jr. of Norfolk, Va., and Clement H. James of 4124 Woodberry St., University Park; seven grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Friends may call today from 7 to 9 p.m. at Francis Gasch's Sons Funeral Home, 4739 Baltimore Ave., Hyattsville. Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. tomorrow at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, 36th Avenue and Nicholson Street, Hyattsville, with burial in Congressional Cemetery. The family requests that expressions of sympathy be in the form of donations to cancer research.
