Death Follows Fall

Boy Visiting in Clarendon Victim of Accident at Play

Special Dispatch to The Star

Clarendon, Va., August 13 –

Ralph Javins, eleven years old, of Baltimore, was fatally injured Monday when he fell from the roof of a garage at the home of his half-sister, Mrs. Ferdinand Phillips of Westover street. He died at Georgetown University Hospital yesterday, death having been due to internal injuries. Young Javins who was visiting his half-sister, with other children, was swinging from the garage roof onto the limb of a tree. He lost his hold and fell fifteen feet, landing on the stump of a tree.
