

Emma Austin Johnson

(- 9 Jan 1912)

Johnson. Suddenly on January 9, 1912, Emma Austin, beloved wife of J. Orville Johnson. Funeral from Wright's Chapel, 1337 10th street n.w., Friday, January 12 at 2 p.m. Interment private (Philadelphia & Boston papers please copy).

The Evening Star, January 10, 1912, p. 18

Stricken On The Street

Mrs. Orville Johnson Succumbs to Heart Disease

Stricken by heart disease shortly after 8 o'clock last night at 8th and D streets northwest, Mrs. Orville Johnson, sixty years of age, of 467 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, died a short time later at the Casualty Hospital. Funeral services will be held in Wright's Chapel, 1337 10th street, at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Johnson was walking along the street when she was stricken. Citizens carried her into a store and the ambulance of the Casualty Hospital was called. She was placed in the ambulance and taken to the hospital. She was unconscious. While physicians were endeavoring to revive her she expired.

She was the wife of Orville Johnson, a photographer. Mrs. Johnson was a native of New York state and came to Washington a short time before the civil war. She was married to Mr. Johnson in this city. A daughter, who also resides here, and her husband survive her.