

John Albert Joy

(- 31 Dec 1918)

Joy. Departed this life suddenly, Tuesday, December 31, 1918 at 11:45 a.m. at his residence, 1426 1st street southwest, John Albert Joy, beloved husband of Emma Joy (nee Bartlett), aged seventy years. Funeral from his late residence on Friday January 3, 1919, at 2 p.m. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend.

The Evening Star, January 1, 1919, p. 13

J.A. Joy, 73, Ends Life With Gas

John Allen Joy, seventy-three years old, yesterday afternoon ended his life by inhaling illuminating gas. His body was found in his sleeping apartment by his daughter, Mrs. John Hayes, 1426 1st street southwest, where he resided. Coroner Nevitt gave a certificate of suicide. He was told that Joy's deed was . . .