

Alvin Samuel Keller

(7 Nov 1876 – 1 Jan 1919)

Keller. On Wednesday, January 1, 1919, at 10 p.m., Alvin Samuel, beloved husband of Emma Mellen Keller and son of the late Samuel P. and Mary E. Keller. Funeral from his late residence, 1236 E street southeast, Friday, January 3, at 2 p.m. Interment private.

The Evening Star, January 5, 1919, p. 3

Expert Machinist Dies

Alvin Samuel Keller, expert machinist in the torpedo shop, Washington navy yard, died at his home, 123 E street southeast, New Year day after a short illness.

Mr. Keller was born at Laurel, Md., November 7, 1876 and started to work at the navy yard as an apprentice twenty-five years ago. After working in various shops he was assigned to the torpedo shop where he has been continuously employed for the past twenty years.

The funeral was held Friday from the home.