Death of Mr. A.F. Kimmell

Mr. A.F. Kimmell, proprietor of the Kimmell House, on C street, between 4 1/2 and 6th streets, died at his residence about 5 o'clock this morning, aged 55 years. Mr. Kimmell came to this city when about 19 years of age, and for several years was engaged in business as a clock dealer, but subsequently, with Mr. Walker, he entered the livery stable business, which was conducted at the stable adjoining the Kimmell House, under the name of Walker & Kimmell, until about 10 years ago when the hotel was erected by him, and was conducted by him until his decease. He resided here over 35 years, and marrying in early life a sister of the late K.H. Lambell, settled here permanently and amassed considerable property. He was well known throughout the District as also in the adjoining counties, and was a highly respected citizen. He was attacked with paralysis on Saturday morning last and subsequently the disease changed to congestion of the brain. He leaves a wife and four children.
