J.C Kondrup Marks 50-Year U.S. Service

Post Office Employe Congratulated by Officials for Long Career With Government

After 50 years of continuous Government work, Johann C. Kondrup, oldest employe in point of service in the Post Office Department, celebrated the anniversary of his completion of a half century of Government labor yesterday with congratulations on his record by officials of the department and his co-workers.

Mr. Kondrup, who resides at 3012 Cambridge street, started his long career in the Government on November 23, 1876, as a page to the official stenographer of the House of Representatives during the extra session of the Forty-third Congress. From there he was appointed as a substitute clerk in the division of rural mails of the Post Office Department, on July 7, 1879, where he was given permanent employment a year later. He has served continuously in the Post Office Department since. He now has charge of all money order business pertaining to the credits and reserves of post offices throughout the country.

He was born on Capitol Hill in the block on First street, where the Library of Congress now stands, and his father was the Danish Minister to this country from about 1870 to 1878. Mr. Kondrup is married and has two daughters, one a widow, and the other the wife of Frank Peckman prominent local attorney, and past District commander of the local post of the American Legion.

Mr. Kondrup was a member of the famous Columbia Boat Club and was one of the nationally known "Columbia Four," which won rowing and sculling honors all over the country during the years of 1880 to 1884 included in which honors were three national championships won in Philadelphia, New York and Boston. He was also a member of the National Fencibles, the old military organization here. He was a companion therein of Clifford K. Berryman. Mr. Kondrup is a member of the Association of Oldest Inhabitants of the District of Columbia, the Georgetown Citizens' Association and the Society of Natives.

While he appears to be in perfect health, he claims that he is just awaiting the time when he will reach 70 years of age and will be eligible for retirement. Just when that time will be, he refuses to say.
