

Henry Kurtz

(- 7 Oct 1888)

The Evening Star, October 8, 1888

Mr. Henry Kurtz, a well-known resident of East Washington, for many years chief pattern maker at the Navy Yard, died yesterday at Garfield Hospital. He had been in bad health for a number of years.