

DeWitt Lamb

(12 Jun 1839 –15 May 1899)

Lamb. Suddenly on Monday, May 15, 1899 at his residence, 459 H street southwest, DeWitt Clinton Lamb, beloved husband of Marietta E. Lamb in the 59th year of his age. Funeral services at St. Patrick's Church on Wednesday, 17th inst. at 4 p.m. Interment at Congressional cemetery.

The Evening Star, May 15, 1899

Retired Policeman Dead

D.C. Lamb, Lifelong Resident Dead

Policeman D.C. Lamb, who, since April 30 has been at his home, No. 459 H street northwest in his 60th year. He was born in Washington, June 12, 1839 and had lived here all his life. He was appointed policeman, June 7, 1878 and for many years previous to his retirement was stationed at the Pennsylvania station. He leaves a widow. The funeral will probably take place Wednesday.

The Washington Post, May 16, 1899, p. 9

Death of ex-Policeman D.C. Lamb

Mr. D.C. Lamb, for more than twenty years a member of the police force of this city, died yesterday at his residence, 459 H street northwest. He was born in Washington, June 12, 1839 and had lived here all his life. He was placed on the retired list last April, and for many years previous to that time had been stationed at the Pennsylvania depot. The funeral will take place tomorrow.