

George Larner

( - 31 Mar 1873)

---

The Evening Star, April 4, 1873, p.

A Washingtonian Accidentally Killed In Illinois

Information has been received here of the death of George G. Larner, a former well known young citizen of this District at a place called Romnius on the line of the Illinois Central railroad, by an accident on the road on Monday last, Mr. Larner was a son of Mr. Michael Larner, and was a well known carpenter of this city. He moved to the west about six years ago.