Deaths of Post Office Department Clerks

Mr. Cranston Laurie, one of the principle clerks of the Post Office department, expired at his residence on O street northwest, yesterday, in the 73d year of his age. Mr. Laurie was appointed to office in 1834. He was a son of the late Rev. Dr. Laurie, of the Presbyterian Church; who erected the church for many years has been known as Willard Hall, on F street. His mother, Mrs. Laurie, is still well remembered as one of the first directresses of our Protestant Orphan Asylum.
