

John W. Law

(- 2 Mar 1891)

Law. At 8:40 a.m., Monday, March 2, 1891, of pneumonia, John W. Law, in his 57th year. Funeral from his late residence, 1433 Maryland avenue northeast, March 3, at 3 o'clock. Friends invited to attend.

The Evening Star, March 4, 1891

Death of John W. Law

John W. Law a well-known printer died at his residence, 428 11th street southeast on Monday, aged 57 years. Mr. Law was a native of the District and worked as a compositor all his life on the Congressional, Globe, Union, and other papers and for some time had been in the employ of Ramsey & Bisbee.