

Margaret Ann Law

( -17 Oct 1922 )

---

Law. On Tuesday morning, October 17, 1922, at 1:15 o'clock, Margaret Ann Law, widow of the late Joseph Edmund Law, in the 87th year of her age. Funeral from her late residence, 6413 Holmead place n.w., Thursday, October 19, at 3 p.m. Relatives and friends cordially invited to be present. Interment at Congressional cemetery.

The Evening Star, October 17, 1922, p. 23

Mrs. Margaret Law Dies

Long Resident of Washington Expires at 87 Years

Mrs. Margaret A. Law, widow of Joseph E. Law, long a resident of Washington, died early this morning at the residence, 3413 Holmead place northwest.

Mrs. Law was in her eighty-seventh year. She was a native of Virginia, but came to Washington after her marriage and has made her home here ever since 1856. Early in life she united with the Westminster Presbyterian Church, now the Westminster Church Memorial, and up to the time of her death was its oldest living member.

She is survived by four children, Miss Mary A. Law, Mrs. Frank Byram, Mrs. Amy L. Ormsby and Frank A. Law; by her grandsons, Frank A. Law, jr., and Edmund B.W. Ormsby of this city and Joseph Edward Law of Salem, Ore., and by seven great-grandchildren. The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the home.

The Evening Star, October 19, 1922, p. 19

Rites For Mrs. Law

Funeral services for Mrs. Margaret Law, who died Tuesday, will be held at the family residence, 3413 Holmead place, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be in Congressional cemetery.

Mrs. Law, who at the time of her death was eighty-seven years old, was the oldest member of the Westminster Presbyterian Memorial Church. She was born in Virginia, but has been a resident of Washington since 1856.