

Mary Adelaide Law

(9 Apr 1858 – 27 Oct 1931)

---

Law, Mary Adelaide. On Tuesday, October 27, 1931, Mary Adelaide Law, beloved sister of Mrs. Frank Byram, Mrs. Amy L. Ormsby and Frank A. Law. Services at her late residence, 3413 Holmead rd. n.w., Friday, October 30, at 2 p.m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Washington Post, October 29, 1931, p. 24

Miss Mary Law Obsequies

Retired Teacher to Be Buried in Congressional Cemetery Tomorrow

Funeral services for Miss Mary A. Law, a retired teacher of the Washington Public Schools, will be held at her residence, at 3414 Holmead place northwest, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Miss Law, who was 75 years old, died Tuesday, after a long illness.. She was graduated from the public schools here and from the Normal school, being a member of its second graduating class. She was then appointed as a teacher, serving until her retirement in 1922 after 45 years. She is survived by her sisters, Mrs. Frank Bryams, director of music at Eastern High School, and Mrs. Amy Ormsby, and a brother, Frank A. Law.

The Washington Post, October 29, 1931, p. 24

Miss Mary Law Obsequies

Retired Teacher to be Buried in Congressional Cemetery Tomorrow

Funeral services for Miss Mary A. Law, a retired teacher of the Washington Public Schools, will be held at her residence, at 3414 Holmead place northwest, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Miss Law, who was 75 years old, died Tuesday, after a long illness. She was graduated from the public schools here and from the Normal school, being a member of its second graduating class. She was then appointed as a teacher, serving until her retirement in 1922 after 45 years. She is survived by her sisters, Mrs. Frank Bryams, director of music at Eastern High School, and Mrs. Amy Ormsby, and a brother, Frank A. Law.

The Evening Star, October 29, 1931, p. A9

School Teacher's Rites To Be Held Tomorrow

Funeral for Miss Mary A. Law to Be Conducted at Holmead Place Residence

Funeral services for Miss Mary A. Law, 73, retired public school teacher who died Tuesday after a long illness, will be held tomorrow at 2 o'clock at her residence 3413 Holmead place. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Born in Chicago on April 9, 1858, Miss Law received her early education in Washington schools, graduating in the second class of the Washington Normal School in 1877. Shortly afterward she was appointed a teacher in the public school system, serving 45 years before retiring, in 1922. Most of her service was spent in Greenleaf School, Four-and-a-half and N streets southwest. She was a member of the Westminster Church Memorial.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Frank Byram, director of music at Eastern High School, and Mrs. Amy Law Ormsby, and a brother Frank A. Law.