

Maude Lemon

( - 8 Aug 1953)

---

The Evening Star, August 9, 1953, p. A38

Mrs. Maud D. Lemon, Physician's Widow, Church Member, Dies

Mrs. Maud Duvall Lemon, 80, of the Highlands Apartments, Connecticut avenue and California street N.W., died yesterday in her daughter's Baltimore home.

Mrs. Lemon, daughter of the late Andrew Brown Duvall, once District corporation counsel, was the widow of Dr. Hanson T.A. Lemon, Washington physician who died 30 years ago.

A member of Foundry Methodist Church for many years, Mrs. Lemon belonged to the old Metropolitan Methodist Church when it was located at Four and a Half and C streets N.W.

She was a graduate of Columbia College, now George Washington University, and a longtime member of the Twentieth Century Club.

In addition to her daughter, Mrs. J. Kennedy Vickers, she is survived by two sons, James H. Lemon, 3630 Fordham road N.W., and Andrew D. Lemon, 1415 Tuckerman street N.W., three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Her brother, Walker M. Duvall, 514 North Lincoln street, Arlington, and sister, Mrs. Walter G. Pfeil, Passaic, N.J., also survive.

Friends may call at Gawler's funeral home, 1756 Pennsylvania avenue N.W. Services, scheduled for 2 p.m. tomorrow, will be private.

The Washington Post, August 10, 1953, p. 14

Mrs. Lemon Is Dead At 80

Maude Duvall Lemon, 80, a lifelong resident of Washington, died Saturday at the Baltimore home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Kennedy Vickers.

The widow of Dr. Hanson T.A. Lemon, Washington physician, she was the daughter of the late Andrew Brown Duvall, District of Columbia corporation counsel, and Mary M. Duvall.

A graduate of Columbian College, now George Washington University, Mrs. Lemon maintained an interest in university women's activities and was a member of the Twentieth Century Club of Washington. She lived at the Highlands Apartments, Connecticut ave. and Calvert st.

Survivors in addition to Mrs. Vickers include two sons, James H. Lemon, 3630 Fordham rd. nw., and Andrew Duvall Lemon, 1415 Tuckerman st. nw.; one brother, Walker M. Duvall, 514 North Lincoln st., Arlington; one sister, Mrs. Walter G. Pfeil, of Passaic, N.J.; three grandchildren and one great-grandson.

Funeral services will be private, at Congressional Cemetery at 2 p.m. today.