

Edward S. Lewis

(1794 – 22 Sep 1829)

---

Lewis. On the 21st instant, after a painful and sudden illness of three days, Mr. Edward S. Lewis of this City, in the 35th year of his age.

For many years, Mr. Lewis was a clerk in the Treasury Department, which office he held at the time of his death. He enjoyed also the confidence of his fellow citizens, as one of the representatives in the City Councils. His unobtrusive but useful walk in life was marked by an upright and amiable deportment, which won for him the respect of all.

In his last moments, being in the full possession of his senses, he displayed a fortitude and serenity of temper seldom witnessed, and died with a Christian's consolation and hope. Two orphan children are left deeply to feel his loss -- but a guardian Providence will provide for them.

His funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from the House of Mrs. Carlisle, on Pennsylvania Avenue.

History of the Naval Lodge, No. 4, F.A.A.M.

Edward S. Lewis, who had been initiated in the Naval Lodge March 5, 1825, passed April 2, 1825, raised May 14, 1825, and served as Senior Warden during the latter part of 1826 and for the year 1827, was Worshipful Master during 1828 and 1829, and died in the fall of the latter year, the exact date not being of record. It may be gathered from his regular attendance and appointment on important committees that during his connection with the Lodge he was a valuable member.
