

Annie Lippard

(- 15 Feb 1955)

The Evening Star, February 16, 1955, p. A22

Mrs. Annie Lippard, 93, D.C. Resident

Mrs. Annie Lippard, 93, widow of the late John H. Lippard, died last night at the Eastern Star Home, 6000 New Hampshire avenue N.E.

Mrs. Lippard, the former Annie Bradley, came to the District when she was 7 years old. She was born in Sheffield, England. Her husband owned a grocery store at Union and N streets S.W. before his death in 1918. Mr. Lippard was one of the founders of the Fat Men's Club, a social club in Washington.

Mrs. Lippard is survived by a daughter, Mrs. James A. Balderson, of 3600 Connecticut avenue N.W., and a sister, Mrs. Harriet Graham, of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.