

Lulie Kirby Lipscomb

(24 Jul 1865 - 1 Apr 1947)

---

Lipscomb, Lulie Kirby. On Tuesday, April 1, 1947, at her home, the Ontario Apartments, Lulie Kirby Lipscomb, beloved wife of the late Wm. P. Lipscomb and mother of Mrs. Helen L. Rea and Geo. W. Lipscomb. Mrs. Lipscomb rests at her late home, where services will be held on Thursday, April 3, at 2 p.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, April 2, 1947, p. A12

Mrs. Lulie K. Lipscomb Dies at Her Home Here

Mrs. Lulie Kirby Lipscomb, 81, widow of William P. Lipscomb, founder of the general contracting firm which bears his name, died yesterday at her home in the Ontario Apartments, Ontario road and Eighteenth street N.W.

Born in Washington, Mrs. Lipscomb lived here all her life. Her family had lived in the District for four generations. She was a charter member of the Vermont Avenue Christian Church and later joined the Columbia Heights Christian Church.

Surviving are a son, George W. Lipscomb, who now operates the firm founded by his father; a daughter, Mrs. Helen L. Rea of Langley Field, Va., and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at her residence, with the Rev. Harry L. Bell, pastor of the Columbia Heights church, officiating. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.