

Chong Long ( - 29 Jul 1918)

---

The Evening Star, July 30, 1918

Chinamen Dies Suddenly. Friends Seek His Body.

Friends of John Jung, a Chinaman, are anxious to get possession of his body in order that they may have it interred beside bodies of other relatives and friends in Congressional cemetery.

John Jung, who was forty years old, complained of severe pains in his stomach Saturday night while seated in front of his home, 340 Pennsylvania avenue. He was taken to Casualty Hospital where he died early yesterday morning.

An autopsy will be performed to determine the cause of death.