

Andrew I. Lockett

( - 7 May 1883)

---

The Evening Star, May 7, 1883

A Boy Drowned

About 7 o'clock this morning a white boy named Andrew Lockett, 12 years old, living in alley between Q and R and Half and South Capitol streets southeast, was accidentally drowned in the Eastern Branch while attempting to get in a boat. His body was recovered, and the coroner gave a certificate of accidental drowning.