

Charles R. Lockett

( - 30 Dec 1924)

---

Lockett. Tuesday, December 30, 1924, at Emergency Hospital, Charles R., beloved husband of Hannah Lockett, and son of the late George E. and Annie E. Lockett. Funeral from his late residence, 508 G st. s.e., Friday, January 2, 1925, at 8:30 o'clock a.m.; thence to St. Peter's Catholic Church, 2nd and C sts. s.e., where mass will be said at 9 a.m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment private.

The Evening Star, December 30, 1924, p. 7

C.R. Lockett Expires

Burns Received Under Auto Fatal to United States Worker

Charles R. Lockett, 37, 508 G street southeast, who was severely burned about the arms, legs and body December 14, while working on his automobile on the roadway south of the White House, died at Emergency Hospital shortly before 7 o'clock this morning. Lockjaw developed several days ago.

Lockett, employed in the State, War and Navy Building, was working under his car when gasoline ignited and set fire to his clothing. So seriously was he affected before he got from beneath the car that he fought off persons who went to his rescue. A certificate of accidental death was given.