

Amos G. Luther

( - 10 May 1872)

---

The Evening Star, May 11, 1872, p. 4

Death Of A Police Officer

Last night A.G. Luther, of the metropolitan police, died at his residence, No 131 North Carolina avenue, of smallpox, after an illness of eight days. He was a member of the force about two years and until a few months since was on duty in the seventh (Lieutenant Kelly's) precinct, when he was transferred to the sixth precinct (Lieutenant Eckloff). He was a very efficient officer. Courteous to all, and was respected by his associates and friends. He leaves a wife and two children.