

David Hinckley Lyman (Sr.)

(14 Oct 1877 – 29 Apr 1923)

Lyman. Sunday, April 29, 1923, David Hinckley, husband of Josephine Trenholm and son of the late Charles Huntington Lyman, lieutenant, United States Navy, and Rebekah Chew Lyman. Funeral servies at St. Margaret's Church on Tuesday at 1:30 p.m.

The Evening Star, May 2, 1923, p. 32

David Lyman Dead

Veteran of Spanish War and Native of District of Columbia

David Hinckley Lyman died at his residence, 1718 21st street, Sunday after a long illness. Mr. Lyman was born in Washington and for twenty-three years was an employe of the government, the last sixteen years being spent in the Treasury Department. He was a veteran of the Spanish-American War.

The funeral was held yesterday at 1:20 o'clock from St. Margaret's Episcopal Church.

Mr. Lyman is survived by his wife, Josephine Trenholm Lyman; one daughter, Lilla, and a son, Frank Lyman.