

Walter F. MacNichol

(1854 – 25 Jan 1928)

---

MacNichol. On Wednesday, January 25, 1928 at Homeopathic Hospital, Walter F. MacNichol. Funeral services at Gawler's chapel, 1730 Pennsylvania avenue n.w., Saturday, January 28 at 2 p.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, January 26, 1928, p. 9

Walter F. MacNichol Succumbs to Illness

Painter at Capitol Once Aided in Management of Famous Theatrical Team

Walter F. MacNichol, 74 years old, for the past 20 years employed as a painter under the office of the architect of the Capitol and formerly engaged in the theatrical business, died in the Homeopathic Hospital last night. He had been ill about two months.

Mr. MacNichol, who had been a resident of this city for many years resided at 318 Third street southeast. He was assistant manager for Maggie Mitchell and Sol Smith Russell, respectively, widely known actors of many years ago.

He is survived by a son, Gordon MacNichol; three brothers, Charles, Beach and Frank MacNichol, and two sisters, Mrs. S.H. Marbury and Mrs. E.H. Richmond, all of this city.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed.